THE FRENCH TURF.

Judge Burke, in the Daily America of January 16, gives the following account of a talk he had with jockey Henry, who has just returned from Europe:

"Milton Henry chatted very entertainingly last evening with the writer on the status of racing in France. He will not go to California this winter, having arranged to go back to France on the 18th of February on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. The object of his trip is to see some old friends and to explain to Mr. J. R. Keene the cause of his severing his connection with that gentleman's English stable. Henry says it would be no surprise to Mr. William K. Vanderbilt's trainer, Eddie Hughes, if Elmesmere were to win the Derby. 'He is exactly like Yankee, except that he is brown,' was the way Henry described the American-bred colt which was foaled in France. There is every reason for the family resemblance, both being by Hanover. 'The starting is done by M. Fige without any barrier,' the jockey said, 'and no better work could possibly be seen. Yet I believe that they are to try the barrier there this year. M. Fige has the confidence of all the riders. He has been acting in that capacity for about twenty-five years.' Henry said that Mr. Vanderbilt has this year a splendid stable of two-year-olds, but under the French rules they will not race until after August 1.

"Henry will ride this year for Baron de Rothschild, whose colors are those of his relative in England, 'blue, yellow cap,' the same colors carried to victory in the St. Leger by Leopold de Rothschild's Doricles. M. Ephrussi, the baron's son-in-law, has only a small stable, and Henry will have a better chance in the baron's stable, which is trained by an Englishman, J. C. Watson. For years the baron has been the leading French turfman in the matter of stakes won, but this year he has not been so lucky. Second call on Henry's services was given to Baron de Shickler. Henry now weighs only 105 pounds and has no difficulty in keeping down to weight. The scale in France is, however, heavier all round than in this country. In one race in France Henry rode a horse called Codoman at 141 pounds. The horse was unplaced (the race was won by Mr. Whitney's Kilmarnock), but the going was heavy or the horse would have had a chance. Codoman is a big brown, but rather an odd-looking horse behind the saddle.

"Henry mentions as a strange thing that horses running in France (and no doubt also in England) are compelled to wear heavier shoes than in America, the reason being that ordinary shoes spread from concussion. 'Elmesmere is game and a stayer,' added Henry. Strangely enough, Henry rode Nasturtium several times when that colt was a yearling in the hands of Lewis Elmore, who trained him for his then owners, Messrs. Follansbee and Chanler. Henry does not say that Nasturtium will have any difficulty in getting around Tatten-Corner. Any good jockey, wide awake, can outpace it, he says. Some of the French courses worse than Tattenham Corner to get around."

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

"It will be welcome news to lovers of racing," says Judge Burke in the Daily America of January 16, "if the Jockey Club will accede to the desire of the Washington Jockey Club and grant that association's request to commence racing one week earlier than has been scheduled. In other words, the Bennings people want to begin on Monday, March 24, instead of on Thursday, March 27. It will be nearly four months by that time since any one around New York or Washington will have seen any racing, and, in view of the great difficulty now that racing people have in backing their fancy, the early commencement at Washington will be eagerly welcomed. The rearrangement of dates, if it be made (and there is little doubt of that, I fancy) will give the Bennings track eighteen days in the spring before the legal date (April 15) at which racing can begin in New York state. Should there be no rearrangement of dates in the fall to provide for the Jamaica track, Bennings will have at that time of the year eighteen more days, making thirty-six in all. In several quarters last night the opinion was expressed that there would be a rearrangement so as to let Jamaica have about ten days or two weeks, for by that time, if not before, it is said that that track will be in first-class working condition."

Another American stallion now doing stud duty in England is the famous horse Ramapo, winner of the Suburban of 1894, when, carrying 120 pounds, and ridden by Fred Taral, he beat Banquet, 119 pounds; Sport, 114 pounds; King Lee, 110 pounds; Henry of Navarre (3-year-old), 108 pounds; Pickpocket, 110 pounds; Sir Walter, 120 pounds; Don Alonzo, 121 pounds; St. Michael, 100 pounds; Kinglet, 105 pounds; Comanche, 112 pounds, and Charade, 111 pounds. Time, 2:06 1/4. Value to winner, $12,070. He is by Pontiac—Annie F., though the requirements of the rules mention that he had a double paternity—by Runnymede or Pontiac. He stands at $120 in England.

The Washington Jockey Club has announced the stakes which will be decided at the Spring and Autumn meetings. They are as follows: The Bennings Spring Handicap, $700, six furlongs, and the Second Spring Handicap, $1,000, seven furlongs, to be run at the Spring Meeting. The Grand Consolation, $2,500, seven furlongs; the Dixie, $1,500, one mile and three-quarters, and the Vestal, $1,200, one mile and a half, to be run at the Autumn Meeting.

Judge Burke, in the Daily America of January 19, has this to say of Garry Hermann's dam: "Soldiers of fortune who expect to acquire sudden wealth by discovering the long lost Silk Gown, dam of Garry Hermann, are wasting their efforts searching for her. When she was bought by the Breeders' Association and sold without pedigree, as far as racing goes, she died, writes W. M. Moeckler in the Globe Democrat. It would not make a particle of difference if she should now be discovered and her identity established to the satisfaction of those who knew her best, for she can never regain her place in the stud book, and her progeny, though thoroughbred by right of birth, would not be so accepted. She might produce another Garry Hermann, though this is so unlikely that it would be safe to lay 500 to 1 against it, but even if she did, the second Garry Hermann would not be allowed to run on a regular race track, governed by the rules of either the eastern or Western Jockey Club. Thus, whoever might buy Silk Gown for $75 or $100 would get a mare worth probably not so much as that, though, if she can produce good mules, as it is reported she is doing, she could not be bought for any such sum. Mules are worth, on an average, more than horses, and the advantage in their favor would be great indeed were it not for the occasional sensational prices made for exceptionally fast race horses."

Joe Hawkins, the trainer, has charge of a large string of two-year-olds at Versailles, Ky., which he is preparing for a western campaign which will probably open for him at Louisville. He is handling the following two-year-olds:

Chestnut gelding, by Victory—Fleda B.
Black filly, by Victory—Strap.

Black colt, by Tristan—Ellerslie.

San Venado, off well, always lay well within reach, went to the front in the stretch, but had to be driven out to win. Katherine Ennis showed plenty of speed and held on gamely. Urchin closed a big gap after getting off badly and was probably the best. McGinn was of little or no help to Invictus. Novia tired in the going.

Sylvia Talbot got off well in her stride, assumed a commanding lead without much effort and was pulled up in the last furlong. She was much the best and is probably a coming crackerjack. Adirondack broke slowly on the outside and closed a big gap. He acts like a stayer and was easily the second best. Tom Mitchell outstayed Prince Eugene, which tired chasing the winner. Venecia, held at the post, had no chance at the break and was pulled up in the last furlong.

Went to post at 3:58. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Nellie Forest was fresh and good and showed remarkable speed and stamina. Bard Burns was a greatly improved horse and appeared to be the winner almost throughout but failed right at the end. Pat Morrissey was badly interfered with but finished strongly. The Miller found the journey too far. Grand Sachem ran poorly and showed little speed. Herculean ran in L. V. Bell's colors. He had no chance at the start and failed to show much speed. Cougar disliked the going.

Scratched—29833 Redwald, 109; (30255) Bagdad, 109; 30260*Pompino, 109; 30226*King Dellis, 103. Overweights—Bard Burns, 1 pound; The Miller, 1.

Went to post at 4:23. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second the same. Meehanus beat the gate and made the most of his advantage, winning in a terrific drive by the closest of margins. He was backed down heavily at the last moment. Duckoy broke flatfooted, met with early interference, but closed stoutly and was running over the winner at the end. Matt Hogan went well throughout, but was not quite good enough to win. Goal Runner appeared to be anchored with the weight.

Winner—B. g. by Flatlands—Lizzie M.
Went to post at 3:02. At post 16 minutes. Start fair. Won all out; second the same. Poorlands bumped his way through on the first turn and opened a big gap on the others. He tired in the run home and would have been beaten in another stride. Kildarlie was much the best and with decent handling would have won. Mark Hanna II. showed improvement. Give and Take ran well. Kuhn on Jim Winn pulled up at the start and was fined $25.00 and suspended for ten days by the starter.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey O'Neil has arrived at New Orleans from San Francisco and will remain to the end of the meeting. The rider was accompanied by Charlie Latham, who will make his engagements. O'Neil led the jockeys riding at St. Louis last season, and is regarded as a fine lightweight in the west. He is under contract to T. P. Hayes.

George C. Bennett's newly engaged lightweight, Dade, is a bright lad of seventeen, weighing but 90 pounds, and is a lad of promise. Bennett's stable will cut a wide swath this year, as usual, in the west, and will be represented also at Saratoga.

R. "Tiny" Williams has signed to ride for Thomas Griffin this year. Williams at one time was thought to be the best rider of two-year-olds in the west.

Death, which is thought to be probably the best horse in training now at New Orleans, has been entered in the big Brooklyn jumping events.

According to an English expert Nasturtium will have to be all that is claimed of him if he expects to beat Foxhall Keene's Kearsarge.

Charley Ellison has left San Francisco for the east. It is reported that he lost $10,000 playing the horses at Oakland.

Starter Holtman has been engaged to start the horses at the Louisville meeting beginning in May.

Also a complete record of performances at all styles of billiards.
